Meet the entrepreneur behind the restaurants Social Kitchen & Bar, MEX, and Beau's Grillery visited by all of us from around Detroit. He won the Crain's 20 in the 20s award. In three years, he has built a restaurant empire. When Zack was in fifth grade in Farmington Hills, he had predicted that he will go to culinary school, become a chef and own a restaurant. At age 29, he has accomplished that and much more. He has the infrastructure in place to spread throughout the country. He has expanded to Grand Rapids and Chicago with 2 additional restaurants in Birmingham. He speaks around the country telling his story and inspiring others.

His discipline, management and leadership skills and business acumen make him the entrepreneur he is and he is not done!
